BUILDING FOUNDATIONS IN READING

The Porter County Community Foundation, Porter County Public Library System and Westchester Public Library System have brought Dolly Parton's Imagination Library to Porter County! Registered children ages zero to five will be mailed a free book every month.

Families can now register any eligible children (Porter County residents aged zero to five years) on the DPIL website. Six to eight weeks after registration, each child will receive their first book, The Little Engine That Could. Books will continue to arrive in the mail monthly until the child's fifth birthday. Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is available to all children, at no cost to their family, regardless of income.

Since launching in 1995, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library has become the preeminent early childhood book-gifting program in the world. The flagship program of The Dollywood Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, has gifted over 200 million free books in the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Australia, and The Republic of Ireland. This is achieved through funding shared by The Dollywood Foundation and Local Community and State/Provincial/National Partners. The Imagination Library mails more than 2.6 million high-quality, age-appropriate books directly to children's homes each month. Dolly envisioned creating a lifelong love of reading and inspiring children to Dream More, Learn More, Care More and Be More.

The program's impact has been widely researched, and results demonstrate its positive impact on early childhood development and literacy skills. Penguin Random House is the exclusive publisher of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. For more information or to register your child, please visit imaginationlibrary.com.

This remarkable program would not be possible without the commitment from the State of Indiana to further support and grow early literacy education across Indiana, and the support of the Porter County Community Foundation. Interested donors and community partners that would like to help sponsor this program for years to come can contact Westchester Public Library System, Porter County Public Library System, or visit the DPIL website.

For more information about Dolly Parton's Imagination Library in Westchester Township, contact Westchester Public Library Director Heather Chaddock at 219-926-7696 or heather@wpl.lib.in.us.

St. Patrick's Day
Paper Clover
Wreath

Bring the luck o' the Irish to your door with this gold and green crepe paper wreath. In nature, real four-leaf clovers can be tricky to find, so make your own using crepe paper instead. According to tradition, each clover leaf is meant to stand for something: hope, faith, love, and that evasive fourth leaf stands for luck.

GREAT COURSES

12 Women Who Shaped America 1619-1920 (DVD)

History all too often overlooks the invaluable contributions of women, and US history is certainly no exception to this pattern. Museums, documentaries, historical sites, and even textbooks omit essential parts of the whole picture because they leave out her story. Join historian Professor Allison K. Lange, of the Wentworth Institute of Technology, as she guides you through the fascinating lives of 12 early Americans, all of them women, and all of them crucial to a better understanding of American history. With a deft talent for bringing history to life, Allison explores the complex and often controversial lives of these American women who dedicated themselves to living beyond the constraints of their time and place.

In the eye-opening lectures of 12 Women Who Shaped America: 1619 to 1920, you will meet a dozen influential women with astonishing life stories, each of whom found a way to break away from the constrictive social and familial norms of their day. A popular adage says that “well-behaved women seldom make history,” and that is true. From the earliest days of the Republic through much of the early 20th century, American women were expected to lead private lives of modesty and obedience. Although some of the women explored in this course valued the more traditional feminine roles expected of them, none of these women allowed those expectations to limit their lives or their ambitions. If they had, not only would we not know their stories, but the history of the United States would have been quite different.
