

NEW ERA GUITARS

MAKING MUSIC IN THE DUNES

A new exhibit highlights the life and career of local guitar builder Tony Klassen. Klassen was an artist, self-taught musician, naturalist, and handyman. His home in Furnessville was his solace and, eventually, his workshop, where he built and sold guitars for 16 years.

Exhibit runs through
JULY 31

Westchester Township History Museum

OPEN:

12pm - 5pm Wed. and the
2nd and 4th Sat. of the month.

You may also visit on Tues.,
Thurs., or Fri. by appointment.
Call 219-983-9715 to reserve a time.

