WELCOME ABOARD!

A note from our new outreach Librarian, Amanda:

“As someone who has been enchanted by the dunes my entire life, I am thrilled to serve the community that embraces and respects this ecologically magical place. I hope to see you in a program or at an outreach event soon!

For me, libraries have always been the place to “dwell in possibility” that Emily Dickinson imagined in her famous poem. The library is a space where every one of us can access stories, tools and information to develop and reinvent our multitudinous “possibilities.” Libraries opened the door for me to be the first person in my family to consider college as an option, something I will always be grateful for.

For the past ten years I have enjoyed serving children and families in youth-focused public library positions. Then the time came to grow and learn new skills- and what luck, there was an opening in my beloved Chesterton! Outside of libraries, I enjoy running, relaxing at the dunes with my husband, and playing with our rescue pups Moose and Oakley. Thank you for letting me be part of the Westchester story- and go Cubs!”

Say “Hello” to our new Outreach Librarian when you see her out and about at community events!

We will be closed
Thursday, July 4
in observance of Independence Day.
