SHELF IMPROVEMENT IN 2026

The New Year is a natural time for reflection and setting fresh goals. As you picture your ideal 2026 self, consider adopting one habit that can boost your intelligence, support your health, and even strengthen your relationships: reading.

Warren Buffett famously reads 500 pages a day. While hours of reading may not fit into your daily routine, small and consistent reading habits can make a big impact. Here are a few ways to build your reading muscles and improve your mental fitness in the year ahead:

Make a Reading Resolution

Consider setting a goal to read a certain number of books or pages per year, or an amount of time per day. At WPL, our Winter Reading Program in February—and our Summer Reading Program mid-year—offer fun incentives to keep you motivated.

Join a Book Club

Book clubs are a great way to meet people, discover books you might not pick up on your own, and enjoy meaningful conversations. WPL hosts three monthly book clubs:

- Bifocal Bookies at our Hageman Branch
- Popular Books at our Thomas Branch
- Night Owl Book Club, also at our Thomas Branch

New members are always welcome!

Create a Bedroom Reading Space

A helpful personal strategy: keep your phone, TV, and computer out of the bedroom, and place a book on your nightstand instead. This sounds easy, but many of us struggle to resist the siren song of the blue screen! Nevertheless, sticking with this one change can make unwinding with a book far more likely.

Happy New Year from all of us at WPL!

Let us know how we can help you reach your reading goals, and may 2026 be the year of shelf improvement.

Treating Anxiety (DVD & Hoopla digital)

Have you ever considered that you just might owe your life to anxiety? Learn how evolution favored those with a healthy amount of anxiety, including your personal ancestors. Explore the boundary between everyday anxiety and the clinically significant anxiety that is experienced by about one-third of the population in their lifetime.

In the 12 fascinating and action-oriented lectures of Treating Anxiety, Dr. Ellen Hendriksen describes the causes and symptoms of numerous anxiety disorders—from generalized anxiety disorder to social anxiety to panic. In her calming manner, and always backed by rigorous scientific studies, she will give you numerous tools and exercises you can employ immediately to help treat your own anxiety. After all, few of us are in danger of being eaten by a bear these days and, as Dr. Henricksen points out, we don't want to spend our lives hiding in the metaphorical cave.
