SOCIAL CLUBBING

If you haven't yet joined a book club, maybe you should—a British Medical Journal study recently determined that participating in a book club is, in effect, a social “brain workout” that can actually reduce the risk of premature death. Plus, belonging to a book club can increase motivation to read by up to 75%.

Westchester Public Library offers three staff-led book discussion groups, all open to everyone ages 18 and up: Popular Books, each first Monday at 2:00 PM at the Thomas Branch; Bifocal Bookies, 1:00 PM every second Tuesday at Hageman; and our newest, the Night Owl Book Club, which meets at 6:30 PM every third Wednesday at Thomas. If you're interested, just call the Library at 219-926-7696 to learn about next month's book title, and make arrangements to borrow a copy.

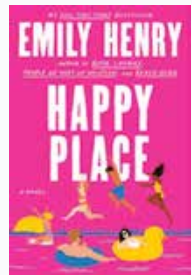

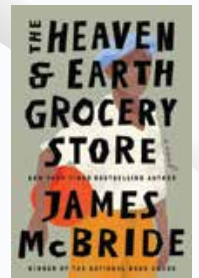

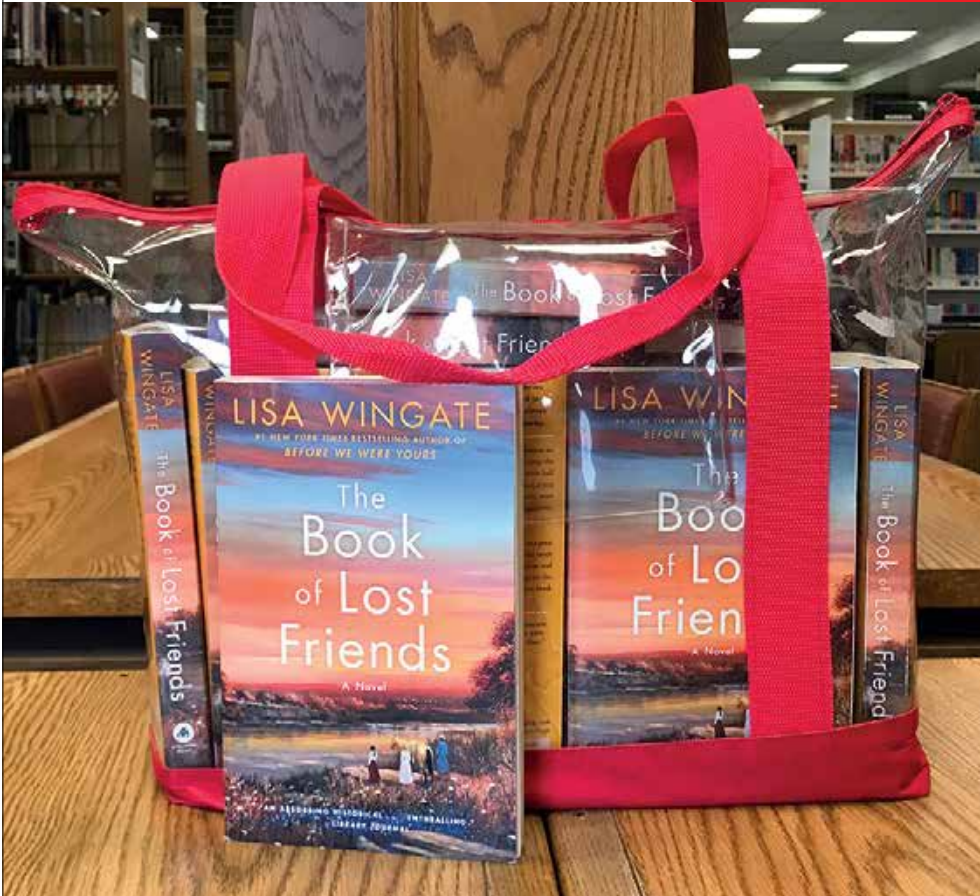

Want to start your own book club, but don't know where to begin? Westchester Public Library can help with that, too – We currently offer over 100 different ready-made Book Club Kits for checkout (with over a dozen in Large Print), each containing 10 or 20 copies of a thought-provoking book with a list of questions to help your group start talking. Selections range from bestselling literary fiction to thoughtfully-selected classics and compelling non-fiction, so there's something for everyone (and we're always adding new titles). To find a list of available book kit titles, search our catalog for “book club kit”, or stop by the Library today. We can't wait to read with you!
